

TRAINING SESSIONS FOR FAMILIES, YOUTH AND PROVIDERS

“What’s After High School?” - Training on Transition

“What’s After High School?” is a broad overview of the transition to adult life for young adults with disabilities and special needs and includes the following topics:

- planning for the future
- the role of schools
- long-term supports
- vocational resources
- moving into adult health care
- supported decision making
- basics of self-determination

These trainings are ideal for families who have children ages 14 - 21 and providers and school staff who work with young adults with special needs. Youth are welcome to attend.
