Getting Help as an Adult: Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC)

Learn what services the Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) provides. The ADRC has been called the “gatekeeper” to adult programs. Find out when, why and how you will need to connect with them. We were joined by Jim Pritzkow, Information and Referral Specialist, and Quinn Hause, Disability Benefits Specialist, from the Sauk County ADRC

Previous recording on Supportive Decision Making: There are alternatives to guardianship. Supported decision-making empowers individuals with disabilities to make informed decisions about their life that protect their rights and ensure their safety and privacy. It involves family and friends working together to help them make complex decisions. Presented by Tami Jackson, Public Policy Analyst and Legislative Liaison for the Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities (BPDD)
