

CAREGIVER PERSPECTIVES WANTED

RESEARCH STUDY

Transition of care and the potential supportive role of a genetic counselor

This study is recruiting caregivers to complete an anonymous survey understanding transition of care from pediatric to adult for individuals with neurodevelopmental disorders to learn about perceived needs and barriers and assess perspectives on if genetic counselor involvement could be supportive.

Participants also have an opportunity to engage in a follow-up interview

Who Can Participate?

Caregiver of individual with:
Autism, ADHD, genetic conditions

What is involved?

Anonymous 10-15 minute survey
Opportunity to do a follow-up interview

INTERESTED?

questions?

email Allison Kaiser at akaiser@mcw.edu

Participants are eligible to enter to win one of ten $20 gift cards AND one of fifteen $20 gift cards if follow-up interview is completed