

A Gathering for Parents of Children in Complex Care

This six-week group offers a safe space to connect with other parents on a similar journey. Together we will:

- Overcome isolation
- Reflect on life experiences
- Build resiliency
- Share resources

(Note: There is no cost to participate in this group.)

Tuesday Evenings

March 17

March 24

March 31

April 7

April 14

April 21

Meets virtually via Zoom

6:30 PM -
7:45 PM

We understand that things come up, but hope you can try to make it to all six weeks for the benefit of the group dynamic.

Danielle Gerber (facilitator)

Danielle is a parent of three, one who is medically complex. She has been working with families from Complex Care for six years and cares deeply about connecting families to one another.

Scan code or click here to register:

connecting FAMILIES

Jenny Huffman (facilitator)

Jenny is a parent of two, as well as a licensed social worker and small group facilitator. She has supported families of children with disabilities for many years and currently leads the Connecting Families network.

This six-week parent support group is part of Connecting Families, a network of peer support for families of children and youth with special health care needs in southern Wisconsin. To learn more, click HERE or scan the code.

Connecting Families is funded in part by the MCH Title V Services Block Grant, Maternal and Child Health Bureau, Health Resources and Services Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

